Central European Journal of Canadian Studies
Volume 12

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

The Editorial Board is seeking contributions for Volume 12 of the Central European Journal of Canadian Studies / Revue d'études canadiennes en Europe centrale.

Articles should not exceed 15 pages (27,000 characters with notes, excluding spaces).

We invite articles that examine any area of Canadian Studies. Because the Journal will be read by Canadianists from a variety of disciplines, we encourage submitters to write in a jargon-free style. This will ensure readability among the expert and the general academic public. Use your good judgement to explain potentially alienating terminology or to avoid it altogether.

Also to encourage readability, please keep endnotes to a minimum. Instead, incorporate as much relevant information as possible into the body of your paper.

Reviews should not exceed 4 pages (7,200 characters excluding spaces). Reviews for the CE Journal are restricted to 1) books by authors from the Central European region (in any language); 2) books by authors from outside the region that the reviewers feel are particularly useful for teaching or research purposes here; 3) translations of Canadian books that fall within the traditional domain of Canadian Studies. If in doubt, please feel free to contact us.

Reports (on activities or events in the region) should not exceed 1 page (1,800 characters excluding spaces).

General requirements

To facilitate the review process, make sure to have your submission pre-read by a qualified native speaker of English.

Deadline for submission: January 31, 2018.

The procedure for submitting contributions is as follows.

1. Submission guidelines can be found on the CEACS homepage (www.cecanstud.cz) under "Publications". The direct link is:

http://cecanstud.cz/images/files/publications/publications_style_sheet_2012.doc

2. Send your submission electronically to cecanstud@gmail.com. Please include "Journal 12" in the subject title of your e-mail.

4. Within a week of submitting your contribution, CEACS will send you electronic confirmation that it has been received. If you do not receive such a message of confirmation, please contact Jason Blake (blake.jason@guest.arnes.si). Again, please include "Journal 12" in the subject title of the e-mail.

Each submission will be read and judged based on a blind reading by two Canadianists from the region so as to ensure an objective decision.

Authors will receive the results of the decision within a few weeks.

We look forward to receiving your contributions.
